“Assisting Women in New Beginnings”

This quote says it all for me and for 20 years I have been explaining, sharing, honouring and taking action on these strong words.

It's where I began 20 years ago in honour of a girlfriend who was a young mother. Her story opened my eyes and moved me into action. This woman is still a big influence in my life. Over the years, she has taught me strength, courage and motivated me to influence change in the community.

Thinking of the 18,786 women, many of them mothers, we have assisted with a new beginning basket over the past 20 years I am overwhelmed with our donors' generosity and huge hearts.

My mom especially appreciated the support we provided women in the shelters...moms, daughters, sisters and friends. On this Mother's Day, I will cherish the memories of my Mother. Once again this year, I will honour my mom with a basket donation in her name. You might consider making a donation for your special Mom.

Happy Mother's Day to all Moms!
